

THE CITY.

John Wilkinson's team ran away on Sherman avenue Sunday afternoon and smashed his $200 buggy.

Burglars attempted to enter the residence of Contractor Hix in Kountze place but were frightened away.

Francis Joseph, the bright and precocious little son of Frank Murray, died with brain fever Sunday. The funeral occurred at 2 p. m. yesterday from the home of the parents, 1213 North Sixteenth street, and the remains were interred in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Carl T. Seely, editor of the Madison Chronicle, was in the city Saturday and purchased a new dress for his paper.

D. C. Bloomer of Council Bluffs, accompanied by his brother, C. A. Bloomer of Buffalo, N. Y., and N. J. Milliken, editor of the Omaha County Times, called on the Bee yesterday, visited the Bee building in all its departments yesterday, and were delighted with the completeness of everything they saw.

Alfred R. Denno has returned from a three weeks' sojourn at New Orleans. He says that the Mississippi river below the point of its confluence with the Ohio is almost a sea, and in many places is from twenty to fifty miles wide where it has overflowed its banks. The poorer classes of farmers are the sufferers.

Lieutenant Parke of the Twenty-first Infantry, stationed at Fort Sidney, is in the city. Lieutenant Parke has recently perfected a patent which he thinks will revolutionize the locomotive power of the world. Before returning to his station he will go to Lincoln and make application for admission to practice before the supreme court.

W. L. Buchanan, manager of the Peary Grand opera house in Sioux City, which is one of the most beautiful and best managed theatres in the west, called at the Bee yesterday. Mr. Buchanan is also concerned in the management of the Sioux City hall club, which, he says, will win the pennant if the Minneapolis club does not develop too much strength. He says the Sioux City club does not consider the Omaha club in the race.

Dr. Birney, practitioner limited to entarrh and diseases of nose and throat. See bldg.

A Little Outcast.

The infant that was left at the Hotel Casey and by the proprietor referred to the tender mercies of the county commissioners last Saturday, was taken to the county poor farm that evening. Two different parties desiring to adopt a child called to see it. It is a very pretty little fellow. Mahoney says, however, that the unfortunate waif was suffering from fearful eruptions all over his body, and for this reason the visitors declined to consider making it their own. Mr. Mahoney added that he would probably take the little one to the state institution at Lincoln.

Nebraska Sons of the Revolution.

To the Editor of The Bee: Please permit me to repair an omission in calling a meeting at my office in this city to organize a "Nebraska Society of the Sons of the American Revolution." I did not name the hour at which it might be held, viz: at 11 o'clock a. m. April 24, at room 312, New York Life building.

Hon. C. H. Gere of Lincoln and Colonel C. S. Chase of this city, have consented to assist in the organization, and I think enough interest has been evinced to make the organization probable, if persons interested will attend the meeting on the 24th inst.

GEORGE L. MILLER.

Ask your grocer for Cook's extra dry imperial champagne. Once used no other will suit. Its bouquet is delicious.

Real Estate Exchange.

The following sales were reported at the real estate exchange yesterday:

Lot 17, block 1, Clifton Hill, to Anna M. Long, by A. P. Tukey, $1,800.
Lot 16, block 1, Clifton Hill, to Thomas S. Granville, by A. P. Tukey, $1,800.
Lot 17, block 1, Clifton Hill, to G. M. McBride, by A. P. Tukey, $2,000.
Lot 17, block 6, Briggs Place, to R. Garlick, by Benson & Carmichael, $1,800.
Lot 24, block 6, Briggs Place, to R. Garlick, by Benson & Carmichael, $1,800.
There were no listings.
Lieutenant Pearce, stationed at Ft. Sidney, was a caller at the exchange yesterday.

Deceased His Wife.

Mrs. H. C. Adams writes from San Francisco to Chief Seavey in regard to the death of her husband, who died at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha on February 18. The lady states that she was informed that he died of pneumonia and was buried from Healey & Healey's in Forest Lawn cemetery on February 21. On the other hand, she received a letter from Poor Commissioner Mahoney stating that no such burial occurred.

Yesterday Detective Vaughan found a trunk and two valises filled with clothing at 1125 South Fourteenth street, which belonged to Adams. He will forward them to his wife. The officer is confident that Adams had two wives.

Opening of Public Works.

There was a meeting of the board of public works yesterday afternoon, at which the estimate for grading streets in Windsor Place was allowed in favor of Canfield & Fleming.

The work on curbing and paving contracts left over last year is about to commence. Contractors have been given time to proceed with grading for the paving on North Thirtieth street from Bristol to Ames avenue. The paving to be done with Galesburg brick. The work of completing the curbing on North Twenty-fourth has begun. The curbing of Eleventh street between Nicholas and Clark will commence this week.

Curbing on Eighth between Farnam and Douglas has been started and will be finished this week. Reeves & Co. are working on the Twenty-seventh street sewer between St. Mary's avenue and Leavenworth streets. Contractor John F. Daley will commence work on a sewer in district No. 37 Wednesday morning.

Towns on the Sioux Reservation.

New towns are springing up on the great Sioux reservation across the Missouri from Pierre, and lively county seat contests will be drawing cards in the next year's programme. The people of Pierre are in spirit, and that virgin capital of the new state of South Dakota is the central distributing point for that vast tract of country so recently ceded by the red men to the rule-faced civilization.

Y. M. C. A. RETIREMENT.

Instituted by Secretary Williamson, Who Has Resigned.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. has considered the resignation of Mr. Charles Williamson, who asked to be relieved immediately of his duties as acting secretary of the association, but decided that they could not spare him before May 1. They accepted his resignation accordingly, to take effect at that time.

The members of the board were delighted with Mr. Williamson's report as to the curtailment of expenses without corresponding abridgment of the state of Nebraska.

By soliciting advertising Mr. Williamson has reduced the cost of printing the weekly bulletin "Printers" from $200 to $200 per annum. Over $2,000 per annum will be saved in actual expenses if the course shall be pursued which has been inaugurated by Mr. Williamson. The report was a striking contrast with that of the preceding administration, which, it has been discovered, ran the association deeply into debt and then concealed the fact from the trustees of the association.

By a unanimous vote it was decided to offer the position to be made vacant by Mr. Williamson's resignation to Mr. John H. Elliott, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association at Minneapolis. This gentleman is one of the most successful and popular men in that work in this country. The salary offered is $2,000 per annum. Mr. Elliott receives $2,000 at Minneapolis.

THE COURTS.

Renewed Activity Before the Several District Judges.

Judge Doane called the district court docket yesterday. He dismissed the charge of incontinence by Little Bridge Hamilton, the thirteen-year-old girl of whom so much has been noticed recently by reason of her being left astray, together with several other little girls. County Attorney Mahoney informed the court that he had enlisted the attention of charitably disposed persons in the little one's behalf, and that she would be placed in the hands of a family.

William F. Lorenzen and John G. Brandt commenced an action against Alfred Lindblom, Nels O. Brown and the Kansas City investment company for $16,000. The suit is the result of a difference of opinion regarding the value of certain lots in Oklahoma park addition to this city.

Chief Hanson asked that the city of Florence be restrained from taking possession of a small strip of property belonging to him.

Judge Howell and a jury commenced hearing Henry C. Scott against the city for $500 damages on a property lease.

Levy Kaufman, who is making a party defendant in the suit of Charles Beindorf against David Kaufman, Kaufman Bros., Levi and Anna Kaufman, filed his answer yesterday for himself and wife. This suit was brought by Beindorf to recover on a mortgage deed which was given by the defendants, Levy and Anna Kaufman, to secure notes given by David Kaufman.

Levy and Anna Kaufman are the parents of David and Isaac Kaufman, and it is stated in the answer that the two sons gave notes to Beindorf for certain goods purchased and gave as securities contracts on certain lands. After the notes had been given it is alleged that Beindorf, the son of Charles Beindorf, and Charles Hallor, his attorney, called at the home of the old people and told them that David Kaufman had violated the mortgage by giving as securities land contracts for land which he did not own, and threatened to have him arrested and prosecuted unless the parents at once decided to Beindorf their homestead for the notes. The answer alleges that they were in great fear lest their son should be arrested, and they made the deed on the condition that the prosecution should not be pushed, and for no consideration whatever but only with a view to compelling the supposed felony of their son.

Afterwards, it is alleged, Charles Beindorf met the elder Kaufman and told him if he did not at once pay him (Beindorf) the sum of $500, the son, David, would be arrested and prosecuted for transferring property in which he had no interest.

Upon being thus threatened the old man paid the $500 and gave the mortgage to Beindorf to him and also to set aside the deed on which the suit was brought, on the ground that it was not executed as a voluntary act, but was given through fear and for no consideration whatever.

Judge Doane heard the case of Hans Larson against Nellie King for $250 on a building contract. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Judge Wallace commenced the case of Mathias Soutar against Michael Soutar, a suit to recover $3,311.09, alleged to be due on a contract for erecting a building on Pierce street between Thirtieth and Fourteenth.

The case was greatly changed after the contract had been made and the balance claimed is based on the increase in cost by reason of the changes.

W. W. Goughly has commenced action in foreclosure against Charles E. Seibert, et al., to recover $1,000 on a loan secured by mortgage on lot 4, block 1, Wise & Parmelee's addition.

Samuel T. Ames has brought suit in foreclosure against the same parties to recover the same amount they were owing to him. May term of the United States court in the sum of $500 on the charge of breaking into a government warehouse.

Pears' Soap is the most elegant toilet adjunct.

Death of Father Boyle.

Rev. Father T. J. Boyle, pastor of St. Peter's church at Twenty-seventh street and St. Mary's avenue, died of heart disease last night. His death was very sudden and unexpected. Father Boyle was thirty-two years of age and has been in Omaha about nine years, coming here from Fremont. Solemn high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and at 11 in the afternoon. The remains will be shipped to Pittsburg, Pa., for burial.

County Court.

Jacob Meyer has instituted an action against W. G. Bohannan and wife to recover $285.00 alleged to be due for labor and material furnished in erecting a house.

United States Court Sessions.

Judge Dundy and his son Scipio will return from their trip to Mexico some time this week.

Yesterday was set for the United States court to convene at Norfolk, Neb., but owing to the judge's absence it was postponed until next Monday. The business to be attended to will not consume more than a day.

The May term of court will convene in Omaha three weeks later.

The First National bank at Fremont and Edward E. Balch, receiver for the same, have brought a bill of equity in the United States circuit court against the Capital National bank of Lincoln, asking that the defendants be made to appear before the United States court and give an account of property belonging to the bank which is claimed to have been used by the defendants to pay the indebtedness of Julius O. Chase, president of the First National bank at Fremont, who is insolvent.

The Standard.

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as having passed above the realm of what is commonly called patent or proprietary medicines," said a well known physician recently. "It is fully entitled to be considered a standard medicine, and has won this position by its undoubted merit and by the many remarkable cures it has effected. For an alternative and tonic it has never been equaled."

BAKER AND McCAGUE.

Cannot Tell Why the Postoffice Bond Is Not Paid.

United States District Attorney Baker has returned from Valparaiso, and when questioned as to what the bondsmen for the new postoffice site had done, replied that they had done nothing yet in compliance with the request made by the treasurer of the United States, which was that they deposit $10,000 with which to pay the expenses incurred in conducting the new postoffice site.

He said further that Mr. Hitchcock was the only one of the bondsmen who had been to see him concerning the matter, and that that gentleman expressed himself as being in favor of having the money put up immediately as requested.

Among the bondsmen are Byron Reed, G. M. Hitchcock, Lorenzo Crouse, S. L. Wiley, Edwin A. Sherwood and others who do not care to have their names mentioned in the connection. Byron Reed seems to think that the government should first pay the expenses of conducting and then fall back on the bondsmen for the amount advanced.

Mr. Baker regrets their delay as it is sure to retard the construction of the building.

Mr. John L. McCague, the spokesman for the bondsmen of the new postoffice site who has just returned from the east, was seen. He expressed himself as well pleased with the progress that is being made in settling the matter although he thought for awhile that there was undue slowness in the procedure. He assured the reporter, however, that the final arrangements concerning the building up of $10,000 asked for by the government would be attended to this week. The delay, he said, had not occurred, as anticipated, through the negligence of United States District Attorney Baker, though he did not state to whom it should be charged.

Mr. McCague said further that the new postoffice in Omaha was never realized than the new structures voted at the same time for Milwaukee, Buffalo and Kansas City. Whether or not the other bondsmen will make up Byron Reed's part of the assessment and then bring action against him for his portion, Mr. McCague did not say.

General Agent Wanted.

A capable man who has the ability to represent a popular building and loan association for the state of Nebraska will be liberally dealt with. For particulars address Byron Sutherland, Sec'y, Minneapolis, Minn.

General Agent's Visit.

General Russell A. Altier, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and party, consisting of Mrs. Altier, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Whittenmeyer, national president of the Women's Relief corps; Mrs. Emma Manchester and Mrs. Luckner, arrive in Omaha on the annual visit to the local Grand Army post at 6:30.

this morning. The party will be escorted to the Paxton, where a suite of six rooms has been engaged. At 10 o'clock they will be driven to Fort Omaha, where they will witness a parade and review of the troops and take luncheon with General Wheaton. From 3 to 6 in the afternoon a reception will be given at the residence of J. M. Thurston, to which everybody is invited. From 7 to 8 in the evening a second reception will be given at the Paxton, when the Grand Army band will serenade. Thence they will proceed to the Grand opera house, where a campaign will be held and addresses delivered by General Alger, Mr. Thurston, Governor Thayer and Mrs. Whittenmeyer. A chorus of 100 voices will sing the old war songs and the proceedings will terminate with a general hand shake on the stage.

The visitors will leave via the Union Pacific for the department encampment at Denver at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and will proceed thence to California.

The delicious fragrance, refreshing coolness and soft beauty imparted to the skin by Pozzoni's Powder commends it to all ladies.

THE CHECK WAS WORTHLESS.

A Man Named Neal Tries to Work a $7,000 Scheme.

For the third time an effort has been made to boost into notoriety the name Neal. His initials this time are J. R., and he suavely requested Mr. S. P. Morse to identify him at a bank, that he might cash a certified check for $7,000 and pay for some goods, which he had purchased from the dry goods man. Mr. Morse was not extensively in the identifying business, but went over to the bank with his customer and they were informed that the check was not good. Through the formality of telegraphing the bank in San Francisco on which the check was drawn the money would be forthcoming. When the answer came that no such check had ever been certified, Mr. Neal's comfortable room at the Paxton was ready for another guest. He had left.

Van Houten's Cocoa—Pure, soluble, economical.

Wanted, Whisky.

Engineer Van Alstine of the government building caught two burglars attempting to break into the bonded warehouse in the basement of that structure, where whisky, cigars and innumerable other imported articles are kept. The fellows were arrested as vagrants. At the police station they gave the names of John Conroy and Frank Montgomery. At 10 yesterday afternoon they were removed to Deputy United States Marshal Lyons and taken before United States Commissioner Anderson, where they were held over to the May term of the United States court in the sum of $500 on the charge of breaking into a government warehouse.
